CALL FOR ENTRIES

1. The City of Tegernsee – in collaboration with the German Alpine Club (Deutscher Alpenverein), Bavarian Public Broadcasting (Bayerischer Rundfunk) and Tegernsee Valley Tourism (Tegernseer Tal Tourismus GmbH) – presents the 15th Tegernsee International Mountain Film Festival from 18 to 22 October 2017.

2. Entries to the competition can be submitted in the following three categories, whose content criteria are as follows:
 - 2.1. Mountain Experience – Alpinism, Mountain Sports, Adventure (feature films, documentaries, features, short films, reportages, portraits, educational films)
Central to these films is a sportive encounter with the mountains – the depiction of achievements and personalities from the various disciplines of mountain sports.
 - 2.2. Mountain Nature – Landscape and Environment (feature films, documentaries, features, short films, reportages, portraits, educational films)
Welcome are all submissions concerning themselves with natural mountain environments – their unique landscapes as well as environmental preservation, protection and sustainable development.
 - 2.3. Mountain Life – Culture and Science (feature films, documentaries, features, short films, reportages, portraits, educational films)
Films in this category approach encounters between people and mountains from an ethnological and cultural angle; they emphasize the valence of the mountains as a symbol and reveal people, history, society and environment in their special relationship to them.

Works produced before 2014 will not be accepted into the competition.

3. To be accepted into the competition, films must be submitted in one of the following formats:
Preferred file formats: mp2 (m2t, m2ts) / AVCHD – specifications 1280x720; 1440x1080 or 1920x1080 / mp4 / .mov (H.264)

All files must have been created in a Microsoft Windows-compatible data format (NTFS, exFAT)!

Accepted data carriers for pre-selection and festival screening are: data DVD – Blu Ray – USB stick – external hard drive (HDD/Windows data format) – SD cards.

It is the submitter's responsibility to produce a valid version of their film for festival screening.

If a film is to be submitted via download, this needs to be registered with the festival office in advance.

4. Submitted data carriers must only contain the video registered for the competition (one film per data carrier only!). Only flawless copies of a high technical standard are accepted for competition. Entries must contain a complete original version, must not display promotional identifiers or trademarks (e.g. of broadcasting stations or sponsors), and must include a lead text and credits.
5. The selection committee's decision regarding admission of a film to the competition is final.
6. The Festival Director and his team determine the selection criteria and screening sequence for films running in the festival.
7. An international jury evaluates the films admitted for competition and may award the following prizes:
 - 7.1. Great Prize of the City of Tegernsee (€ 3,000) for the best film across the three categories 2.1. – 2.3.
 - 7.2. Prize by the German Alpine Club (€ 1,000) for the best film in the category Mountain Experience – Alpinism, Mountain Sports, Adventure
 - 7.3. Respective First Prizes (€ 1,000 each) in the categories Mountain Nature and Mountain Life
 - 7.4. Otto-Guggenbichler-Prize (€ 1,000) for the best entry by a Junior Film Maker. By the end of the film's production period, the author/director must not be older than 32 years.
 - 7.5. Award for the most outstanding camera work (non-monetary prize)
 - 7.6. Award for the Exceptional Film (non-monetary prize)

A prize will only be awarded if at least three films were submitted to its respective category.

At its own discretion, the jury reserves the option of refraining from awarding a certain prize and of dividing a prize between two nominees. The jury may also honourably mention submissions of special value that do not receive an official award.

8. Audience Voting
 - 8.1. An Audience Prize (€ 1,000) goes to the film voted most liked by the audience.
 - 8.2. Seeing that voting occurs during school class screenings, the festival awards the Mountain Film Festival Mini Prize to the best children's or young adult film.
9. Non-German-language entries are welcome and may be submitted in the original language, but if possible, with German subtitles. All such films must be submitted with a German and English script (preferred with time codes) to enable the production of German subtitles. In this case, a clean feed copy must be available on request.
10. All entries must include: a brief introductory text, a plot summary, a short biography and filmography for the director (as well as an indication of their age, if the film is to be considered for the junior film maker category!) and image files for free-of-charge use in the festival programme, in other festival publications and by the press covering festival activities. Publication of these images is at the discretion of the festival organizers. All texts submitted with an entry must be in German or English.
11. The German Alpine Club kindly request a DVD copy or the permission to produce a digital copy of all submitted entries for its library's film archives. Screenings of these films by the Alpine Club will be strictly non-commercial – within its library and during cultural events.
12. All participants in the festival competition consent to free-of-charge broadcasting of one or several excerpts from their film (in total not more than 3 minutes) on German television and within the festival's social media to facilitate current reporting on festival activities.
13. The organizers guarantee that they will handle entries to the festival with the greatest possible care. However, they assume no liability for damage to films either during shipment or in Tegernsee.
